

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS

For Professional Dancers, Actors, Choreographers and Directors. The following workshops are also introductory days for the

Actor Dancer: Interdisciplinary Training programme commencing in Autumn 2008

THE INTERDISCIPLINARY DANCER: MOVEMENT WITH VOICE AND TEXT

Saturday 12th April 2008

Participants will be introduced to core techniques based on principles of release and anatomical imagery which support creative articulation of the voice and body. There will be the opportunity to explore translation from text to movement and movement to text within a professional group environment.

WEEK-END WORKSHOP:

IMPROVISATION AND EMOTIONAL EMBODIMENT

Saturday 21st June 2008, 10am - 5.30pm

This day introduces improvisation skills to explore interplay between conscious and unconscious creative impulses. Participants will have the opportunity to work on a section of Jacky Lansley's choreographic work Holding Space as an experience of embodied performance.

THE CHOREOGRAPHIC EXCHANGE WITHIN SITE SPECIFIC WORK

Sunday 22nd June 2008, 10am-5.30pm

This day will enable participants to identify and explore the visual, functional and spatial qualities of selected indoor and outdoor environments as stimulus for choreographic composition. There will be a sharing/evaluation of research at the end of the workshop to which guests are invited.

(It is possible to attend one or other of the days, however, we strongly advise participants to attend both days as there will be a momentum and linking concerns through the week-end).

COST for each workshop £55 (All /£150)

Early booking is strongly advised as places are limited.

Please contact the Dance Research Studio for further details and bookings

Tel: 020 7613 0341

Email: drs@jackylansley.com

These workshops are introductory days for the Actor Dancer: *Interdisciplinary Performance Training Programme commencing in Autumn 2008; please see website for further details.

Please register your interest in the Actor Dancer: *Interdisciplinary Performance Training Programme by sending your details to drs@jackylansley.com and we will respond with further information as soon as it is available.